Freilich, a former Israeli deputy national security advisor, will discuss the challenges and strengths of Israel's national security policy. He will share insights into the history and chronic inadequacies of Israeli national security policy, attributing them to Israel's volatile regional environment, its politicized electoral system and the structural peculiarities of the Israeli government.

Ahead of Time, The Extraordinary Journey of Ruth Gruber – Monday, May 5 @ 7:00 pm

With her love of adventure and fearlessness, Ruth Gruber defied tradition from the moment she became the world's youngest PhD at the age of 20 in 1931. Ahead of Time tells the remarkable journey of 96 year-old Gruber. Gruber continued to make history throughout her trail-blazing career by becoming the first journalist to enter the Soviet Arctic in 1935 and escorting 1000 Holocaust refugees from Naples to New York in a secret war-time mission in 1944. She covered the heart wrenching ordeal of the refugees aboard the ship Exodus 1947 with photographs that helped change the world.

Mamadrama, The Jewish Mother in Cinema – Monday, June 2 @ 7:00 pm

Jewish mothers are the most easily maligned image of Jewish women found in movies and television today. You know who they are: the caricature of the overbearing, emasculating, long suffering mother ever-ready with mountains of food. Australian director Monique Schwarz takes a penetrating look at how the loving and affectionate portrayals in early Yiddish and Hollywood silent movies developed into the Jewish Mother of modern Hollywood and, conversely, the more flesh and blood characterizations in contemporary Israeli cinema.

From Rabbi Bob Ourach

As we finally enjoy Spring and move toward Shavuot, I think of the prayer that follows. This version of the paragraph (the V'ahavtah) that follows the Sh'ma, lifts our hearts and inspires our actions. Its challenge at this season, and in every season, should direct our lives.

If we can hear the words from Sinai
 Then love will flow from us
 And we shall serve all that is holy
 With all our intellect and all our passion
 And all our life.
 If we can serve all that is holy
 We shall be doing all that humans can
 To help the rains to flow
 The grasses to be green
 The grains to grow up golden like the sun
 And the rivers to be filled with life once more.
 All the children of God shall eat
 And there will be enough.
 But if we turn from Sinai's words
 Making gods of our own comfort or our power
 Then the holiness of life will contract for us
 Our world will grow inhospitable
 To rains from heaven
 And the produce of the earth will not be ours.
 Or worse
 It will be ours unjustly
 And our acts shall isolate us
 From the flowing waves of green and gold.
 Let us therefore
 Lace these words
 Into our passion and our intellect
 And bind them, all of us,
 As a sign upon our hands and our eyes,
 Writing them in mezuzot for our doors and gates,
 Teaching them to our children,
 Listening to our children teaching us.
 That our generations may be as numerous
 As the stars of heaven and the dust of earth,
 As faithful as the living waters
 That unite them all.

On the Wings of Awe--Hillel

From the President, Jay Wiesenfeld Email: wiesenfeld@ieee.org

It has been almost one year since I assumed the Presidency of MRT, and it has gone by very fast. It is now May and we are facing many transitions.

The Annual Meeting will be held on May 4. We are electing new Officers and Trustees, so the makeup of the Board is changing some. I am excited to welcome new Board members Harry Hillson, Bonnie Klein, and Julia Sandra Rand. And in the spirit of transition, I acknowledge that I will miss the presence of Stu Tuchband, who is retiring from the Board as Fourth Vice-President, because he has reached his constitutional term limit. We are fortunate to have volunteers willing to engage in the governance of our congregation, proposing and monitoring new directions and programs, worrying about the implications of those programs and our finances, and devoting their time to our temple community. The leadership of MRT is also a community. I have valued the time that I spend with our leaders. I thank them as they begin their work and I thank them as they must depart.

I encourage and welcome you to volunteer at MRT. You will be rewarded by your efforts and with the community that you create.

Rabbi Marc Kline will become our rabbi on July 1, marking a significant transition for us. As I have written before, Rabbi Kline will partner with us to enable MRT to thrive, and I am looking forward to his rabbinate. He will be visiting at MRT on May 18 and for a few days thereafter. He will be present at the religious school closing picnic, to meet our students and their families, and everyone else who will be able to come. Please come to meet Rabbi Kline.

The other rabbinic transition happens on June 30, when Rabbi Robert Ourach will finish his term as Interim Rabbi. I am grateful to Rabbi Ourach for his leadership and insights, and know that we have been well-served by his tenure here. We will have a Shabbat service in honor of Rabbi Ourach on Friday, June 13, so please attend.

Finally, I want to recognize some of the benefits of being president. I want to thank our clergy, Rabbi Ourach, Cantor Clissold, Rabbi Priesand. I have become closer to all of you and it has been a significant benefit for me. I must thank our wonderful office, Helene and Mindy, the rest of the staff at MRT, and of course, the Board of Trustees, the Executive Board, and our volunteers, who all contribute to make MRT “our spiritual community—where we nurture meaning in our lives.”*

*ATID Report, July 23, 2014

MRT Annual Meeting
Sunday, May 4th at 4pm

Summary of April 22nd Board of Trustees meeting: from Jim Halpern, MRT Recording Sec'y

The Board would like to acknowledge positive happenings within our congregation.

The Men's Club celebrated the NCAA's March Madness by watching the final game at the Pour House. The Bracket Pool was won by Mitch Baum. Our religious School conducted seders for the K-3rd grade classes, for the 4th-7th grade classes and the Mitzvah Academy. Sisterhood had a movie night with a showing of "YooHoo Mrs. Goldberg". The next movie night will be on May 5th with a showing of "Ahead of Time, The Extraordinary Journey of Ruth Gruber". On March 21st we had our Spring Visual T'Filleh. The next VT will be conducted for Shabbat Services on June 20th. On Passover, our Second Night Seder was well attended. Also to celebrate Passover, MRT joined the Presbyterian Church in Shrewsbury and held a joint seder on April 13th. Cantor Clissold partnered with Reverend McKirachan to lead the event. MRT congregants went to the Church and we shared our traditions. Sisterhood's Shalach Manot earned over $1,500 with the sale of hamentashen this year. The Baldwin Davidson Fund awarded $250 scholarships to twelve of our children this year for summer camp and two for trips to Israel. The Men's Club had a successful Passover wine sale. Shabbat Kallah brought Rabbi Stephen Pearce to MRT for study. Rabbi Pearce also conducted a leadership workshop for Board members. Also, as part of our Adult Education programs, Rabbi Karyn Kedar visited and presented at MRT. Work has begun in the Garden of Plenty, with the hope of providing hundreds of pounds of vegetables this year. The Nomination Committee has a complete slate of candidates for this year's elections. Rabbi Ourach attended the Central Conference of American Rabbis. While there, he spent some time with Rabbi Kline, who will be our new Rabbi this year. Rabbi Kline said that he is excited to be coming to MRT.

Rabbi Kline will be visiting MRT on May 18th for several days. During his visit, he will have a chance to meet with our Religious School community, please watch for announcements. He is looking forward to meeting everyone. He will also be attending our May Board of Trustees' meeting.

The Executive Committee, functioning in its role as our Human Resources Committee, has recommended a one year contract extension for Vera Galleid, our school principal. The Committee also informed the Board that our Youth Advisors will not be returning next year and we will need to fill these positions. A three person Search Committee is now writing job descriptions for these positions.

The Board continued its discussions about Committee Structures and Governance and why it has been difficult to find people to volunteer. This important discussion, which began as a recommendation from the ATID Task Force last year, seeks to help us identify and train future leaders at MRT.

The Board discussed the Monmouth Festival of the Arts. This year, while we did not have art on display at our facility, we did find volunteer leaders to maintain the Student Art Competition and the Educator's Seminar. Both of these MFA events were successful. The Board is currently seeking volunteers who would like to lead the MFA for an event in the summer of 2015. While organizational ability is certainly a requirement, past experience with the MFA is not. So if you are interested, please contact our office.

Rabbi Ourach reminded everyone of our special service and presentation on April 27th to commemorate Yom Hashoah. Our very special speaker is to be Gina Hochberg Lancaster.

Stu Tuchband presented the Treasurer's Report on behalf of the Finance Committee.

The Ways and Means Committee's concert presentation of "The Jersey Four in Concert, a tribute to Frankie Valli and the Four Seasons" will be on Saturday, May 31st. Tickets are still available. If you want to attend please contact our office.

Jay Weisenfeld in his President's Report, highlighted some important dates. Friday May 16th is teacher appreciation Shabbat and on June 13th, we will be honoring Rabbi Ourach at Shabbat services.

From Vera Galleid, Religious School Principal

Spring is finally here and we enjoyed celebrating Passover, our spring holiday. We had wonderful model seders at MRT and we hope that our students shared what they learned at your family seders. Thank you to all our parents who supplied food for the seders and helped to set up and clean up. Thank you also for doing the mitzvah of feeding the hungry. We delivered lots of Passover food to Jewish family services. Please join us on Sunday April 27 at 10:00am for our Yom Hashoa service and speaker. We will light candles and remember those who perished in the Holocaust. Gina Lanceter, who jumped off a train going to the death camps, will share her story with us. Students in grades 4 and up will attend and we encourage parents to sit with their children.

We will celebrate Yom Haatzmaut, Israel's 66th Independence Day on Sunday May 4th with film clips, speakers and activities. It is amazing to see what Israel has accomplished in such a short time. Israel has made many contributions to the world in the fields of technology, science, arts, humanities, agriculture and medicine.

All students in grades 4 through 7, who have met the Shabbat service requirements, will be treated to an ice cream party on Sunday May 4 in the Social Hall from 12:00-12:30 pm. On Friday May 9, our second and third graders will participate in Shabbat services at 7:00 pm. Please come and support our students as they pray and lead us in song.

Please come and celebrate with us at our 7th Grade Aliyah Ceremony on Friday May 16 at 7:00pm. We are so proud of all they have accomplished in order to become Bnei Mitzvah and we look forward to watching them grow in Mitzvah Academy. We will also honor our teachers for their hard work and dedication to the students of MRT.

Our last day of Hebrew school is Sunday May 18. Come and celebrate Lag Ba'omer with us. We count the Omer from Pesach to Shavuot for 7 weeks. In Biblical times people brought a sheaf of barley (omer) to the Temple and prayed for a good barley and wheat harvest. This was a precarious time and there were many prohibitions including weddings, parties and haircuts. But Lag Ba'omer, the 33rd day of the Omer became a day of celebration for many reasons. The plague that killed many of Rabbi Akiva's students ceased on that day. In Israel Jews celebrate Lag Ba'omer with weddings, haircuts, hikes and outdoor sports. We will celebrate with Field Day and a barbeque for all our families sponsored by our Sisterhood and Men's Club. More details will follow soon.

Upcoming Events:

Sunday April 27 – Yom Hashoa service and speaker at 10:00 am.

Friday May 2nd – First Friday.

Saturday May 10 – Bat Mitzvah of Julia Schneider.

From the Ways & Means Committee, David Levinsky, Chair

The Ways & Means Team will sponsor its final event of the year on May 31. The poster explaining the evening's details is on this Bulletin's cover page. What the graphic cannot convey is the talent, enthusiasm and fun that the audience will experience at the Jersey Four performance. The show is all about a six piece band and four vocalists in sync for two hours bringing the music of Frankie Valli and The Four Seasons to Monmouth Reform Temple. After singing along, toe tapping and dancing, the W&M members who went on the proverbial field trip to a Jersey Four show promises a great evening on May 31. It is not out of the question that a portion of the social hall will be reserved for dancing.

As W&M's Hustle into Fall and Night at the Races demonstrated fundraising should be enjoyable and memorable; and, these are exactly the comments the Committee received following the two events. Regardless of our committee members' long hours and those of other volunteers asked to assist with each fundraiser, only the temple membership determines the year's W&M's success and viability for the future. MRT's yearly budget process includes a financial commitment from the Ways & Means Committee. We are close to meeting our projection, but a good turnout is needed to fulfill our promise. Please order your tickets now for May 31, either by check or PayPal.

W&M is already planning the Hidden Treasure's Rummage Sale scheduled for November 9 and 10, 2014. We understand that several members are planning house renovations, downsizing or moving out of the area. They are anticipating dropping off quality goods for this lucrative fundraiser over the summer. Unfortunately; the Committee cannot collect and store suitable items in advance of the sale as we did for last year's event. All I can say is that the success of next year's rummage sale is dependent on our member's donations and we hope that drop-offs can be held off until late October 2014. In addition, last winter's rummage sale was an especially labor intensive undertaking. Each step involved many, many temple volunteers stepping up for this major activity. W&M could not have conducted a fundraiser of this size without their commitment. Please reserve the dates to volunteer now on your personal calendars.

We credit Helene Messer, our temple's Synagogue Operations Manager for bringing the rummage sale to the Committee's attention and for staying involved through its successful outcome. What ideas do you have for future fundraisers? Do not hesitate to bring your ideas and experience with other events of this nature to my attention.

Best wishes to all, David Levinsky, W&M Chair

Emily's family is very proud of her hard work, dedication and wonderful accomplishments in reaching this significant milestone in her life. They are truly inspired by her each and everyday.

Emily would like to Thank Cantor Clissold and Rabbi Ourach for their encouragement, support and guidance throughout the year. They made the process an enjoyable and rewarding experience.

After many years of teaching children, teens and young adults, master teacher's Gayle Kaplan and Doreen Laperdon-Addison, recognized that by nature students often forget what they don't practice on a regular basis. Whether it's sports, language, math, or the arts without regular review students can forget or at least need additional time relearning what they've already been taught.

Gayle and Doreen—Religious School teachers at Monmouth Reform Temple—are excited to announce a new camp program, Camp Olami of Monmouth County, designed to help your child entering grades 4-6 transition into the next grade level with ease and confidence. Whether your child is a beginner, needs to review or is ready for the next level of learning, Camp Olami provides the opportunity to advance your child's learning while having lots of fun socializing with other Jewish youth. Camp Olami is open to all Jewish youth in Monmouth County who are willing to have fun in a 2-day camp style environment.

For further information or to register contact Gayle Kaplan and Doreen Laperdon-Addison email campolami@monmouthreformtemple.org. Registration forms for Camp Olami can be obtained through the MRT website or in the temple office.
