MRT ROCKS THE RUNWAY The Fashion Event of the Year!!!

Fashion Week is coming to MRT on April 1st! Our youth and students will walk a real runway complete with lights, music, and two of the area's most fashion-forward MCs (Rabbi Kline and Cantor Clissold). Local stores have graciously donated clothing and accessories from their spring lines for our show. If fashion isn't quite your thing, there will be plenty of excitement to be had with our Chance Auction and 50/50 Raffle.

You should have recently received an invitation in the mail for this red carpet event, and we have sponsorship opportunities at every level. Even if you cannot make it, we hope you will consider taking an ad in our journal, purchasing a 50/50 ticket, or supporting our endeavor with a donation.

A portion of the night's proceeds is earmarked for upgrades to our school security. When we talk about creating an environment conducive to learning and fostering community, a basic sense of safety is a foundation from which we build. Won't you help us reach this worthy goal?

From Rabbi Marc Kline

I wish I could wave a magic wand and change the world. I wish there would be no war and no violence of body or word. I wish that, in faith, we would make the prophecy of Ezekiel come true: we would experience the ingathering of all people returning from our exile. I wish that we could find fulfillment and enlightenment in each other's presence. I wish ... we would take Passover seriously.

Passover is a great time for families and friends to gather and share a meal around an ordered service. The focus of the meal is the Haggadah, the book detailing the story of the Exodus from Egypt and ancient Israel's journey into freedom. Many new versions of this ceremony keep appearing on the bookshelves of Judaica stores and libraries around the world. I wrote a social justice themed Haggadah that we use at our congregational seder. They come in all shapes and sizes ... and themes. I just read the "Hogwarts Haggadah" intended to entice "Harry Potter" fans to enjoy the seder. The food is usually awesome. The atmosphere can often be fun. We host up to 30 at our home for the first night and welcome well over 100 for the second night at temple.

All is good, sort of. The holiday lasts for 7 or 8 days (depending on one's traditional background), and if observant, we eat nothing leavened for that period of time. It is not a horrible, as there exist great recipes using matzoh and eggs without other flour or yeast to get us through the week. We make matzoh pizza and lasagna, flourless chocolate torts, and a host of other appropriate meals. It is all good, sort of.

What happens after Passover? Many go to one seder. Some people go to two or more over the course of the week. But what happens after the holiday is over? For too many, the conversation ends until the next year. We put the Haggadah, Passover dishes, and leftover matzoh meal away, and dive back into real bread and dessert. Passover is not supposed to be done this way. Passover should be the holiday where renew the conversation about our journey towards freedom, empowering us to spend the next year working toward that ultimate goal of peace. Every seder ends, "Next Year In Jerusalem." The statement does not give us permission to sit and wait to see what happens. This statement is a call to action. For all of the things we just read around the dinner table, we have to walk from the seder committed to making next year ... Jerusalem, the fulfilled vision of peace in our homes and communities. It will not happen unless leaving the seder table we accept the empowerment and challenge to change the world.

However you celebrate the holiday this year, make sure that your take away is to build peace into the world around you. Otherwise, it becomes simply a nice meal revolving around a meaningless and empty ritual. I wish that we would find our way into living the blessing and challenge of this upcoming holiday. Tradition teaches that Elijah the prophet will come during Passover to announce the coming of the messianic age. As we open the door for Elijah next year, may our diligent efforts towards peace over this whole year facilitate his joining around our table.

JUMA (Friday Prayer) on 4/7/17 from 12:30pm-2pm

After a series of wonderful interactions, the Islamic Society of Monmouth County (Masjid Al-Aman) invites our congregation to join them for Juma (Friday Prayer) on April 7, 2017. We should be at the Mosque by 12:30 and expect to leave by 2:00. We will be hosted into their worship, to hear the sermon (in English for our benefit), and for a tour of the Mosque and conversation afterward. The membership is excited that we have asked to come. Please let the office know you are coming, for I need to give them a number by the beginning of that week. If you are coming, we can meet at Temple at noon and caravan, otherwise, the address of the Mosque is 496 Red Hill Road, Middletown, NJ 07748. Also, please dress modestly.

Hope you will join us! Rabbi Marc

From Cantor Gabrielle Clissold

One year ago I was contacted by HaZamir. I had heard of it but really didn't know what it was all about. After several conversations with the support of our temple leadership I agreed to start our very own chapter for Monmouth County called, "HaZamir Jersey Shore". HaZamir is an International Jewish High School Choir composed of a network of chapters across the United States and Israel which provides Jewish teens with a high level choral experience in a Jewish environment. HaZamir transcends denominational boundaries, giving all teenagers a valuable and rare transdenominational experience as an opportunity to forge close bonds and unite in a common goal: Jewish music.

Each week, we meet to rehearse a shared repertoire before coming together for regional, national and international events where all chapters met, rehearsed and grew in friendship before the season culminated in the Annual Gala Concert in New York City on March 26th. This year it was at Lincoln Center at the Metropolitan Opera. The gala performance brought together music, Judaism, community and spirituality in a powerful blend that was nothing short of life-changing for all of us.

There are 35 HaZamir chapters across the United States and Israel. Since its establishment 24 years ago, HaZamir has now two generations of Jewish teens across the United States and Israel in ways that going on to form classical choirs and a cappella groups, study for the rabbinate and cantorate, sing in adult choirs and assume leadership roles, both lay and professional, in the Jewish community. HaZamir reaches an emotional core in young people. I could see that participation in HaZamir lays an important foundation for continuing Jewish values later in life, as well as offering the ability to meet challenges and develop personal skills within a communal context. HaZamir invests in Jewish teens with the goal of shaping the next generation of Jewish adults with a deeper understanding of the values, tradition and glory of Judaism and artistic expression.

Next August we will begin auditions for next year. Any Jewish teen in our temple and wider community is welcome to audition. I am grateful to have had this incredible professional growth experience and hope that our chapter HaZamir Jersey Shore will continue to develop and thrive in the coming year.

Passover/Festival Yizkor (Memorial) Services will take place on Tuesday, April 18th at 9:45am

From the President, Zach Gilstein Email: zachmate2@gmail.com

I have spoken in the last two months of the proposed guidelines from the Member Role Policy Task Force on how MRT can be an even more inclusive environment for all of our members. The guidelines were sent out in a congregational email last week.

There are a number of guidelines about ritual as well as guidelines about governance and religious school. There are several key points that will require changes to our Constitution and Bylaws. These proposed changes will be voted on at the Annual Meeting on Sunday, May 7 at 3:30pm.

First, we are proposing to eliminate the clause that requires household members to not be practicing another religion in order to be considered a member of MRT. We would consider all household members to be MRT members, while recognizing that each individual can choose how much and in what ways they would like to engage in our Jewish community.

We are also proposing removing the restriction that a child not be practicing another religion to participate in our religious school. While we strongly recommend that a child be brought up in only one religion, we would no longer make this a requirement of matriculation. We will require that a child who wishes to become B'nai Mitzvah or Confirmed not be practicing another religion, since these rituals are meaningful only if there is a personal commitment to live a Jewish life.

We are proposing to open up membership in the Religious Education, Israel, and Philanthropy committees to all members. These committees are currently limited to those who are Jewish. The Task Force and Board felt that all members who could contribute and find meaning by serving on these committees should be able to do so. We are also proposing to open up leadership of non-Board level committees, other than Human Resources, to all members. The proposed ritual guidelines, while not Constitution and Bylaws impacting, have been modified to enable broader participation in our services and B'nai Mitzvah ceremonies, while recognizing that there are some prayers and rituals that should only be led by Jewish members. Of course, no expectation is made of any member on how she or he should participate. This is always a personal choice.

The objective of the Task Force and the Board was to develop a set of guidelines that would enable us to more fully achieve our Mission and Values Statements – "We are an inclusive community where creativity and openness to new ideas harmonize with the traditions of Reform Judaism" and "We welcome all who choose to embrace Judaism in their lives and homes, regardless of background."

As promised, we had a congregational meeting to discuss the proposed guidelines and gather additional feedback from a broader community. The turnout beyond the Task Force and Board members was small so consideration is underway of how we might engage more members, especially from families that have non-Jewish members. I highly encourage you to review the guidelines and reach out to me, our clergy, or other members of the Board to discuss any questions or concerns that you may have.

Huge thanks to Cantor Clissold and the Purim Spiel players for another rousing Purim Spiel and party. Big thanks to the Social Action Committee for making Social Action weekend with Rabbi Danny Siegel an inspiring set of talks. Thanks to Rabbi Kline for organizing an interfaith prayer session with a broad cross section of faith leaders from our community inspiring us to join together to create a better world.

Summary of the February 21st and March 21st Board of Trustees meeting:s Mark Gruensfelder, Recording Secretary

Happy Spring! Due to the fact that the February Board Meeting occurred after the March bulletin deadline, this article will summarize the key results of the February and March Board Meetings.

During both meetings, MRT President Zach Gilstein expressed appreciation for various events and reminded the Board of upcoming events and activities. Among his comments were the following:

- Our Life and Legacy program now has 18 committed donors! As a result, the Grinspoon Foundation will donate $7,500 towards one our endowments. MRT's Purim Celebration was a hit for all members of the community. An Adult Purimspiel headlined the Saturday night, followed by a dinner catered by Harolds.
- 2. On Sunday morning, a Rabbi Kline-authored purimspiel educated and enthralled our students and that was followed by the SMARTY's annual Purim Carnival!
- 3. Sunday, April 9th is the Red Bank Street Fair, and once again MRT has its own booth. Volunteers are needed to set up, take down, and staff the booth throughout the day. Our presence helps make MRT known in the community as well as enhances MRT's attractiveness to potential new members.
- 4. Sunday, May 7th in the afternoon is our Annual Meeting. It is preceded by a not-to-be-missed Adult Learning program "On the Chocolate Trail" with Rabbi Debbi Prinz. Committee Chairs are in the process of summarizing their committee's accomplishments for the Annual Report.

The Board continued its discussion about the Member Role Policy Task Force recommendation report. Zach reported that an informal poll of Board and MRP task force members indicated that there is an inclination to permit non-Jews to assume some of the Board positions. However, there was also discussion of studying and modifying MRT's governance structure. Zach plans to convene a governance structure task force. When that completes, the non-Jew Board Member discussion could be taken up.

Lynn Shapiro enthusiastically described the Ways & Means sponsored Fashion Show to take place on Saturday, April 1st, at 7:00 PM. Unlike the vendor fair, much of the funds for this event will end up coming from MRT congregants and their families. Funds raised will be split between Religious School activities and the MRT operating account. As a special attraction, MRT Board Members will also (attempt to) model some of the most contemporary fashions. This should be a really fun evening, the first of its kind at MRT!

Several other actions and discussions occurred during these two Board meetings:

- The Board approved a membership application.
- The Nominating Committee presented its slate of candidates for expiring MRT positions. Jay Feigus was proposed for MRT President, Rachel Placitella for Senior VP, Jim Halpern as 2nd VP, and Zach Gilstein as Immediate Past President. For the other four open positions, the committee proposed that incumbents be reelected to another term.
- The proposed 2017-18 MRT operations budget was presented by the Finance Committee and approved by the Board. This budget will be brought to the Annual Meeting for approval.
- The MRT Security Committee, based on discussions with the Tinton Falls police, is now allowing access only through the Religious School entrance during Religious School. Consistent with MRT's increased emphasis on safety, we are applying for a Homeland security grant.

See you again soon...from Margie Wold

My last 9 years

I've been a member of Monmouth Reform Temple for 18 years. I distinctly remember when we joined MRT because it was the same year that my father died. I remember feeling at the time that Rob and I needed to belong to a Reform synagogue where we could experience a feeling of community.

Not long after joining MRT I volunteered to work in the temple library and assist in publicity for the Monmouth Festival of the Arts. The more I volunteered, the more people I met---all ages, all backgrounds. We have a lot of cool people at MRT but if you don't lend a hand or show up to programs, you really never get to meet most of them.

Fast forward to about 9 years ago, when I decided to join the Board of Trustees as the Chair of Adult Education. I had little idea about Adult Ed programs, but in memory of my dad who ran a discussion group as a retiree, I figured it might just be worth my time. After doing Adult Ed, I was asked to join the Executive Board and I was honored to accept the position as Second VP, where I oversaw Adult Education, Membership, Social Action, Arts & Deco and Ritual Committees.

Facing now a restriction upon consecutive terms in our by-laws, I must step down from the Board for at least one year. I will continue my work with various committees but I will no longer be a voting member of the Board. I write all of this in the hopes that someone is reading this and saying, I would like to do my part at MRT to help keep the mission strong and vibrant. We are a phenomenal congregation filled with dedicated volunteers and amazing clergy. How will you be a part of the puzzle that is the mosaic of Monmouth Reform Temple?

Wishing our Temple Board of Trustees much success!

Sincerely, Marjorie Wold

Collecting bicycle helmets for Shine-a-Light

Under the leadership of Dean Ross, MRT has been working with St. Anthony's Church in Red Bank to provide and install bicycle lights, without charge, to those who need them, most recently on the evening of March 27. The program enhances the safety of many who use bicycles for transportation around the Red Bank Area. Over 200 sets of bicycle lights have been donated and installed over the past two years. As part of the program, we also give away bicycle helmets. The next evening installation for lights will be on April 17.

A box will be placed in the cloak room at MRT to place donated helmets.

From Stephanie Fields, Religious School Principal

The school is appreciative of everyone who is going to participate and contribute in any way for the Fashion Show on Saturday, April 1 from 7-9pm. March came in like a lion with our First Friday sponsored by our Kindergarten and First graders to the Sunday of our first 8th/9th grade family education where we took a deeper look at how the Talmud and Jewish commentary evolved and continues to evolve. We all enjoyed a Purim Schpiel performed by our 7th graders and the Carnival afterward put on by SMaRTY (our senior youth group). 5th and 6th graders learned the art of a mezuzah (a piece of parchment inscribed with the shema and v'ahavta affixed to the doorframe). 6th graders personalized a yad (jewish ritual pointer specifically for reading Torah), our second graders are becoming more familiar with the modern state of Israel, and our 3rd graders have learned a majority of their letters and vowels. We finished the month with teacher observations and a shelter-in-place drill to ensure that we are prepared. Stay tuned as April will bring us Passover celebrations, Yom HaShoah (Holocaust) observation, and a Yom HaAtzmaut (Israeli Independence Day) fair designed by our 7th graders for our younger students.

I had the absolutely best massage! Thanks to Lois Wilkes as well for coordinating the scheduling!)... I just love seeing all of this activity!!

Thanks to everyone who came to Sisterhood/Men's club Shabbat, and a special thanks to those who baked yummy desserts!

April 2nd is going to be our women's seder at 6pm, led by our lovely cantor! Please join us for this much loved annual event!

Speaking of Passover, we have many new seder plates and decorative matzah plates that can be purchased at our Judaica shop for your own use or for gifts. Prices in general range from around $18 to $60. We also have Elijah and Miriam cups, as well as a variety of Passover games and books for children. If you want to see what we have, please contact Kay k.wiesenfeld@gmail.com or me sisterhood@monmouthreformtemple.org , and we will be happy to assist you at your convenience. We also have Mezuzzahs (and the accompanying Clafs), necklaces, and other gift items. We have a small selection in the glass cases across from the MRT restroom, but have a lot more in our closet.

I wish you and your families a "Zissen Pesach" - a sweet holiday!

Gan Mazon: MRT'S Garden of Plenty by David Levinsky, davidlevinsky@optonline.net

GOOD NEWS

I am happy to report that Maxwell Bodner, grandson of Howard Bodner, is working on an eagle scout project to honor the memory of his grandfather. The project will add picnic tables to the grassy space between the two 1,000 sq. ft. gardens of Gan Mazon. Howard was instrumental in the creation of the first vegetable garden. He guided its creation as an eagle scout activity and then became its director for three years. Maxwell selected a fitting tribute to a man who cared deeply for our temple and for the people receiving the fresh produce grown at MRT.

Gan Mazon, in garden parlance, is referred to as a PAR garden. PAR stands for "Plant a Row for the Hungry"; our entire harvest is donated to local food pantries. Community gardens renting small plots to individuals or families for their personal use may also set aside PAR space maintained by volunteers.

NOT SO GOOD NEWS

While our production has been commendable in recent seasons, the volunteers that it takes to manage the garden has decreased from season to season. Volunteers do show up for special events, such as when we spread compost throughout the gardens, cut down encroaching trees and Mitzvah Day. Help is not there on a day-to-day basis. Last season two temple members and two non-temple members could be relied on to tend the garden on a regular basis. When any of us go on vacation or visit family and friends during the summer, garden work falls to one or two helpers, including deliveries if no-one else is available.

As I have written previously Gan Mazon's principal beneficiary, the non-sectarian pantry operated by the Jewish Family and Children's Service of Greater Monmouth County, located in Asbury Park, has no PAR garden providing fresh produce. Without Gan Mazon deliveries, JF&CS would have to purchase produce from the Food Bank of Ocean and Monmouth Counties.

Four additional temple members (experience is not a pre-requisite) willing to dedicate on an average of 1-2 hours per week would be enough for Gan Mazon to continue as it has in the past. The sad news is that without additional volunteers, I will have to allow one of our 1,000 sq. ft. gardens to be inactive for the 2017 season; a loss of potentially 500 lbs. or more of produce for the needy families.

Gan Mazon fulfills the essence of Tikun Olam (repairing the world). From the many thank you letters that I receive from JF&CS, I know that our efforts are needed and appreciated. Please step up to continue MRT'S tradition as a caring temple.

Best wishes, David Levinsky (732-536-1813)

MRT 2016-2017 Auxiliaries Karen Kahn Sisterhood Pres. kkahn1@verizon.net

MRT 2016-2017 Board

Spotlight on our Board

Karen Kahn, Sisterhood President by Linda Burns

Karen, the current President of Sisterhood, has always had a strong Jewish underpinning, beginning in 1st grade, when she began her schooling as a Yeshiva student, because her parents did not want to send her to public school.

In fact, her family were never members of a temple, and would attend High Holiday services at the Jewish Theological Seminary "because the services were free". She has been to Israel several times, and twice for a semester-once as a senior in high school and the second time as a Brandeis University student as part of a multinational group. Due to her Yeshiva background, she is fairly fluent in modern Hebrew, and often served as the translator for the group when they were travelling off the beaten path.

In August 1997, she and her former husband joined MRT due to their move from East Brunswick, NJ to Monmouth County, mainly because he had been raised in the Reform movement and gravitated to a Reform synagogue, while she had no particular affiliation. Karen said that attending Reform services "was extremely awkward" for her in the beginning, but that she "got used to it". Her entry point was the Tot Shabbats which she attended with her two young toddlers, Danny & Rachel. Her children progressed through Hebrew School, Confirmation, and MRTSY & NIFTY Board positions, while she always volunteered to read Torah if Cantor Gaby needed her and was an active member of Sisterhood. When I asked her why she assumed the role of President, she said that she was going to do it a few years ago but waited until she was an empty nester and had more time.

An economics major in college, Karen is on her fourth career, as a School Nurse by day and an Instructor in Brookdale's Associates in Nursing program for RNs in the evening. Her prior jobs were as an Accountant, a Recruiter for an Accounting Employment Agency, and at AT&T in Change Control managing software projects. In order to recreate herself, she went back to school 14 years ago and earned both an Associates & Masters degree in Nursing.

In her free time, she enjoys taking long walks, yoga, travelling, attending the opera, and kvelling about her children Danny-an Environmental Engineer in Syracuse, NY- and Rachel-who finished college in December with a major in Psychology & Criminal Justice and who works in the Public Defender's Office in Washington, D.C.

When I asked her why she remains at MRT, she said that it is like the warm and friendly bar in the T.V. show 'Cheers'-"a place where everybody knows your name".
