BEACH SERVICE 2018

Join us on the beach at Seven President's Park in Long Branch, NJ on Friday, August 10th for a 7:00 pm Shabbat service, following a 6:00 pm dinner. Don't forget to bring your own beach chair!

"We will be celebrating the Aufruf of our son Dan Kahn, and his fiancée Ellie Kaplan. We are hosting a light dinner for attendees – subs & chips – please bring your own beverage. Feel free to bring your own food to the beach if you prefer, but we will have ample food if you wish to partake. We will bring the wrapped candy, so we will need lots of hands to dig it out of the sand and eat it! The wedding is out of state, so this is our way of celebrating the upcoming event with our fellow congregants!"

We hope you can join! – Karen & David Kahn

When attending services, and other events at MRT, remember that people around you are sensitive to sound, fragrance, and distraction. Please always enjoy being here in ways that help others enjoy being here, too.

MRT WANTS YOUR HELP!

MRT is looking for your help in Marketing and Publicity!

We do great things at Monmouth Reform Temple every day. But we need to get the word out in press releases, community calendars and event flyers. It is not a full-time job, or even a part-time job, but we would love to have your help spreading the great news about all we do.

Contact: Margie Wold, woldiem@aol.com, 732-241-9941 or Jay Wiesenfeld, jmwiesenfeld@yahoo.com if you are interested.

As we prepare to celebrate the new year 5779, the Ritual Committee is seeking outside greeters and lobby / sanctuary ushers to welcome congregants and guests attending our High Holy Day services.

Please contact Harry Hillson

Mitzvah Day 2018 is coming up on Sunday, October 14th! Be sure to mark your calendars and keep an eye out for more information coming out in the near future. We can't wait to see everyone help give back to the community as a congregation and do our part in healing the world.

CONGREGATIONAL THANK YOUS

I am very proud of MRT members who came through so generously for the Brady Campaign. Thank you all so much for filling the tzedaka box with over $300. This donation value was matched by the sponsor and sent to the Brady campaign on behalf of MRT. – Anonymous

Dear MRT congregants,

We would both like to say thank you to all of the MRT members who sent us cards, emails, and phone calls during this most difficult winter and spring. Your good wishes and prayers certainly helped in moving us toward good spirits and good health. We look forward to being able to again join the congregation for Shabbat services and other programs.

Thank you again,

Dorothy and Leonard Teitelbaum

UPCOMING TZEDAKAH BOXES

July/August 2018 Tzedakah Box

The July/August Tzedakah Box will benefit “Dror, Israel” a pioneering educational movement engaging young workers from around the world, seeks to establish and create social change in Israeli society to promote solidarity, social activism, democracy and equality. Marjorie and Robert Wold will be the co-sponsors.

September 2018 Tzedakah Box

The Tzedakah Box for September will benefit “Give Kids The World”, a nonprofit “storybook” resort, located near Central Florida’s most beloved attractions, where children with life threatening illnesses and their families are treated to weeklong, cost-free fantasy vacations. The Co-sponsor will be Lexi Ziobro for her Bat Mitzvah project.

FROM RABBI MARC KLINE

There are two ways to express being “hot” in Hebrew. If one says, “Ani cham - I am hot,” he/she is speaking about his/her appearance/attractiveness. To speak about how the hot temperature impacts one, he/she would say, “Cham li - It is hot to me.” Certainly, there are times that both apply, but one ought to know what one is saying, so as to avoid controversy. That said, for us at MRT, this summer, we will experience both aspects of heat.

We scheduled some much needed maintenance and rehabbing of our building for this summer. We are installing new security doors. We have more restorative work scheduled for the roof.

We are currently in the midst of conversations on some building and decoration updates, as well. While these are necessary tasks, one of the things I love about our MRT family is that we are not stuck in an “Edifice Complex.” We are growing an edifice consciousness, but we are still (blessedly) far more concerned with what happens inside our building than the gilding of the building itself.

To that end, Magda Reyes begins her tenure as our new Congregational Educator. She has incredible experience innovating education and building ties between a religious school and the wider congregation. She will be here in July, please come meet her.

Over the course of the coming Holy Days, we will outline a new congregational mission to combat homelessness. We anticipate creating opportunities for people of all ages to get involved in the effort so that fewer people in our communities will live in distress.

This upcoming year is our 60th anniversary. We plan to celebrate our life and growth over a series of special Shabbat services, a wonderful gala, and with diligent work and amazing love, we intend to burn our mortgage.

It will be hot outdoors, and the “sweat equity” of our leadership and volunteers will demonstrate the feverish pitch with which we are working. At the same time, what we seek to accomplish is pretty awesome and will attract a lot of positive attention throughout our membership and across the community.

We ask that you join in the work in ways that can make sense for you and your family. I know that the effort you will expend will come back to you in joy and fulfillment. Have a great summer and don't be a stranger!

FROM CANTOR GABRIELLE CLISSOLD

On May 28th my father was admitted into the hospital with a perforation in his colon due to diverticulitis. Amidst all of this I was busy at MRT with amazing work: a mini concert for our Legacy donors, B'nai Mitzvah, Weddings, Shabbat worship etc... in addition I had the added challenges of three day Jury Duty obligation and dealing with an ongoing serious roof problem in my home. We were praying for my father and practically living at the hospital because he was in extremely critical condition in the ICU at Robert Wood Johnson after his surgery. In fact, for four days we were unsure if he would live-although he does not believe this now that he is well. Add to that managing my mother's care, who is in the middle stages of Alzheimer's and some other challenges I can no longer recall, as well as trying to celebrate Simon's Graduation from 8th grade and Asher's 18th birthday and Asher's college advising day.

Simultaneously I informed our temple about what was going on and MRT sprang into action! Everyone's support enabled us to manage this extremely narrow place. Our synagogue is filled with caring and loving people who have lovingly bombarded our family with kindness. It has made our Mitzrayim – which literally means a narrow place – so much easier. In a few days we will celebrate Asher's High School Graduation, Simon's Birthday and Father's Day. Today this day has even more meaning to us as we were not sure what would be for my father. That is what belonging to a synagogue does. If you have ever wondered why being part of a sacred community is important – I can assure you that it makes all the difference as you attempt to go through life.

What I am going through is typical. Parents who live long lives will age, children will always need attention, complicated will things happen to our homes; the bitter and sweet coalesce and life is challenging. But the supportive community of MRT made it possible for us to get through this. If you ever have anything you need, I hope you will lean on us so we can be there when you go through Mitzrayim-your own narrow place.

This summer I hope to see you at our beach services and outdoor services in our meditation garden over the Summer months. I will be working with our youth at URJ Camp Harlam for two weeks in July and August. Our volunteer choir has begun preparing for the High Holy Days. We have so much to celebrate at MRT!

FROM THE SISTERHOOD

Dear Sistahs,

Summer has arrived! It's amazing how winter just kept lingering on and on this year!

We have 3 Sisterhood Scholarship recipients this year who have done so much with and for MRT and the local community. They are Jonah Brewer, Emily Health and Ilana Guadette D'Souza. We also want to acknowledge a 4th recipient, Rachel Romanick, for her essay. We wish all of our MRT senior high school students good luck as they move on to the next chapter in their lives!

Speaking of next chapters, please join me as we celebrate Dan, and his fiancée, Ellie, at their pre-wedding Aufruf at the beach service on August 10th. A light supper will be provided, but BYOB.

I would like to present you with your new sisterhood co-presidents, Nancy Zaslowe and Ellen Goldberg. They have been working hard to catch up on the background stuff, so they are well ahead of the game as they take on this role. I have enjoyed meeting with them and transferring and sharing information.

For me, it is bittersweet to step down from my post. I've really enjoyed my role as sisterhood president. But, I do not currently have the luxury of the time it takes to fulfill this role more fully. Instead of doing another term of 2 years, I thought it best to pass the torch! I so appreciate your support these past 2 years. We all share the task of making sisterhood successful, so I want to thank each and every one of the members of sisterhood!

So... Welcome Nancy and Ellen! Please tell our "sistahs" what they have to look forward to this summer....

FROM ELLEN GOLDBERG

I am so excited to begin this new position as Co-President of our Sisterhood with Nancy! My husband, Jay, and I have been members of MRT since 1996 and have had so many wonderful experiences here. We raised our two sons, Josh and Jeremy, who both had their Bar Mitzvahs and confirmations at this temple. I am not sure when I joined the Sisterhood, but it has been many years, that's for sure. It is one of the things I love the most about our synagogue. Some of my closest friends have come from my involvement in our Sisterhood.

FROM NANCY ZASLOWE

As Ellen stated, I too am excited to be part of our MRT Family. My husband, Peter, and I joined the congregation in 2015. It's wonderful to find such an inclusive group of women who epitomize the word Sisterhood! I'm so excited to join with Ellen to continue to nurture and grow our organization with fun, exciting and profitable activities to help support MRT! I look forward to meeting all of you and if you have any suggestions as to an event we can hold, please don't hesitate to contact us.

To kick start our summer, we have a pool party happening on Monday, July 9th starting at 5:30. Our next fabulous event is a beach party luncheon in Long Branch on August 14 starting at 11 AM. If that isn't enough fun, we have the annual Shrewsbury Yacht club dinner and book swap on the evening of August 22. It is so great to get together with our "sistahs" and have a good time no matter what we do. Please come and join us. If you have any questions or suggestions, you can always email us at mrtsister@gmail.com or sisterhood@monmouthreformtemple.org

Shalom,
Karen, Ellen and Nancy

FROM ISRAEL AFFAIRS CHAIR ELEANOR RUBIN

Here, at MRT, we recently celebrated Yom HaShoah, Holocaust Memorial Day, along with other Jewish communities worldwide. In Israel, Yom Ha Shoah is called Remembrance Day for Holocaust and Heroism. It takes place every year on the 27th day of Nisan, 5708, which this year was April 12, 2018.

Later in the year, Israel celebrates Yom Yerushalayim, Jerusalem Reunification Day after the 1967 war. That takes place on the 28th day of Iyar, 5708, which this year is May 12, 2018.

In addition to Yom HaShoah and Yom Yerushalayim, there were 2 other holidays celebrated in Israel in juxtaposition with each other, one after the other, that can leave a participant breathless and emotionally moved. They are Yom HaZikaron, Memorial Day, and Yom HaAtzmaut, Independence Day.

Yom HaZikaron, Memorial Day, (the 4th of Iyar, 5708; April 17, 2018) honors those whose lives were lost in the struggle that led to the establishment of the State of Israel and all military personnel who were killed while on active duty in Israel's armed forces. It takes place from sunset to sunset and starts officially with its most notable feature, the sound of a siren throughout the country when all traffic and daily activities come to a halt. All places of public entertainment, theatres, cinemas, nightclubs, pubs are closed during the 24 hour period of Yom HaZikaron. Having been in Israel several times during this period, I recall hearing the siren while my husband and I were driving through town. We immediately pulled over to the side of the road, left our car and stood in silence for 2 minutes along with other motorists until the all clear sounded. On another occasion, a different year, I was in an office building at a meeting with several people. At the sound of the siren, we all left the building and stood outside on the street, in silence.

Almost every high school has a "memorial corner" with photos of students who had graduated, joined the IDF and had lost their lives serving in the army. Israel is such a small country (we all know it is about the size of New Jersey) that there is no family that has not had a personal loss or loss of a friend or neighbor. Yom HaZikaron is a somber day throughout the country.

Then an amazing thing happens. Yom HaAtzmaut, Independence Day, (on the 5th day of Iyar, 5708 / April 19, 2018) starts at sundown with parties and dances, singing and flags flying, speeches, military performances and celebratory gatherings throughout the country. This day was established by David Ben Gurion, Israel's first Prime Minister on May 14, 1948 when he publicly read Israel's Declaration of Independence. From a day of mourning, remembering the many losses since the State was declared, the atmosphere suddenly changes and joyful festivities begin. This takes place in homes throughout the country and mostly on the streets and in the parks where families and friends gather to celebrate the freedom of the Jewish homeland. On one of these days, I was at an Air Force installation and experienced a performance of Israel's Air Force with dozens of planes flying in unison and then in breathtaking balletic forms. It was truly awesome.

To be sure, not all Israelis participate in these celebrations. Some Jewish groups believe that the creation of the State was a mistake, in fact, a sin. They may wave black flags on Yom HaAtzmaut. Some Arab Israelis consider it a day of mourning, calling it al-Nakba, the disaster, the day they feel caused them to lose their national identity. For these Israelis, it is nothing to celebrate. Life in Israel is beautiful and complicated.

FROM GAN MAZON – MRT'S GARDEN OF PLENTY

Gan Mazon: MRT'S "Garden of Plenty"

*David Levinsky

*indicates temple member

Our few, dedicated volunteers have been busy since the Bulletin's last issue. Two truckloads of compost were wheel barrowed into our 3,000 square foot garden and raked evenly throughout. To prevent weeds, the garden was covered with four layers of newspaper followed by a layer of salt hay. This preparation phase for planting was time consuming, hard work taken on by a small crew of social action minded temple and non-temple volunteers.

So far, 2018 has been an unusual season for GAN MAZON. We were finally able to plant our cool weather crops at the end of April. Our first harvest of lettuce and collards, picked on May 30, was a bonanza. Gloria Gross and I carefully picked and packed 109 lbs. of collards and lettuce into 11 boxes. *Sue St. Lifer delivered the bounty to the Jewish Family and Children's Service in Asbury Park for its weekly food distribution.

Our summer crops were finally put into the soil on June 8. Several varieties of tomatoes and peppers were planted first, then beets, beans, and eggplant. Winter and summer squash varieties will be planted around July 4. Fortunately for Gan Mazon, Master Gardener Gloria Gross grew all of our disease resistant tomato plants from seed specifically for our garden.

Hopefully, followers of this column made it to this point in the article. Due to the food distribution schedules of JFCS and Open Door in Freehold, Gan Mazon desperately needs someone to coordinate garden volunteers preferring to work in the evening either due to unavailability during the day or a preference for cooler conditions. This is not a veiled attempt to find a successor, but a way to involve much needed volunteers who have expressed regret at not being able to help out. Please contact me if interested.

IT TAKES A TEMPLE AND FRIENDS

Due to the garden's enlargement, new and returning volunteers are needed.

Become a 2018 volunteer. Gardening experience is not required and physical limitations are no problem. As the season progresses, there are jobs for ALL: harvesting, pruning, staking, tying up stems, plant inspection and sometimes watering and cleaning produce. Join Gan Mazon for the satisfaction of helping appreciative, needy families.

Best wishes for a terrific summer, David
